LG Chem Wins GM Supplier Recognition Award

Troy, Mich. – January 15, 2009 – Following closely on the heels of being named the lithium-ion battery cell supplier to GM’s highly anticipated Chevrolet Volt, LG Chem today announced that it also won the prestigious General Motors Supplier Recognition Award. In its eighth year, the Award is presented to a select group of suppliers that demonstrate exceptional performance in quality, cost and delivery, and make a significant contribution to the company’s products.

“This has been an exciting week for LG Chem. Not only did we get the great news about winning the lithium-ion battery cell supply contract for the Chevy Volt, but that is followed by earning this prestigious Supplier Recognition Award that validates the dedication and commitment we have to being a world-class partner to General Motors,” said Peter Kim, CEO and Vice Chairman of LG Chem.
